

State Treasury Surplus Shown

Biennium Ends With $18,755,000 Surplus As New Appropriations Are Approved

By JOHN PAGET

HARRISBURG, June 5.—Pennsylvania ended the last biennium with an $18,755,000 surplus in the state treasury, Gov. Edward Martin announced today as he signed the $243,016,000 general appropriation bill earmarking funds for the next two years' normal state expenditures.

He said that former Gov. Arthur H. James inherited a $71,000,000 deficit from the Earle administration in 1939 "but this deficit has been entirely wiped out and the surplus is now $18,755,000 and we expect it to be $25,389,199 two years hence." The last surplus was recorded in 1931 when former Gov. John S. Fisher left office.

"I want to point out," Gov. Martin added, "that from the taxpayer's viewpoint the amount of tax reduction made is approximately $106,000,000 when the amount of reduction in unemployment compensation tax—about $65,000,000—is added to the $43,000,000 reduction in general fund taxes."

SOME TAXES CUT

The General Assembly reduced the general fund receipts tax and eliminated taxes on personal property, bank and trust company shares, corporate loans and mercantile establishments.

General fund appropriations approved by the governor totaled $373,123,501, including $24,300,000 for teachers' salary increases and $2,357,000 for institutions operated by the welfare department.

Feinberg between the general fund and the $472,000,000 biennial budget is comprised of special funds.

The governor cut a total of $395,000 from the general appropriation bill approved by the legislature, including $200,000 from Democratic-controlled auditor general's department. Other deductions were $125,000 from the department of welfare, $80,000 from the department of public instruction and $10,000 from the agriculture department.

An analysis of general fund appropriations approved by Governor Martin disclosed that $31,172 was set aside for departments under his control and $2,498,040 for the auditor general, the state treasury and the lieutenant governor. $55,874,365 was earmarked for institutions under the control of the departments of health, military affairs, public instruction and welfare; $153,194,604 was allocated to schools, state-aided universities and colleges, state-aided homes and hospitals; and $21,854,900 was marked for the general state authority.

Salmon P. Chase, who established our national system of banks, placed the phrase "In God We Trust" on United States coins, the first coin bearing this motto appearing in 1864.

play of Allied military might may lead to the early removal of Italy as a belligerent.

Continental reports show that Rome for some days has become increasingly anxious about the security of the island fortress of Pantelleria, off the coast of Sicily, and the island of Sardinia.

All three islands have been heavily blasted from the air and the Allies recently have undertaken to shatter Pantelleria's defenses by naval assault.

Significantly the Rome radio this morning began to reiterate assurances that Pantelleria, 45 miles off the tip of Tunisia's Cap Bon, is ready for all and any emergencies. All preparations have been completed to meet an invasion attempt, the Rome station said.

CHURCHILL BACK IN GREAT BRITAIN

dence, by limousine but surprised waiters by striding up to the door nonchalantly at foot.

Churchill waved and gave the famous "V" sign to a gathering of American soldiers who cheered him lustily.

The prime minister returned to England by air from North Africa, where his fighter-escorted plane landed him back on British soil.

The prime minister, an official announcement from No. 10 Downing street said, left the United States a week ago and from there flew to Gibraltar and thence to North Africa.

Visits Eisenhower

His trip to North Africa included a visit to the headquarters of American General Dwight D. Eisenhower, allied commander-in-chief, where he was joined by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

The British officials were still in North Africa when the new government to rule the French empire was formally established by Gen. Henri Honore Gustave French civil and military commander in North Africa, and Gen. Charles De Gaulle, Fighting French leader who formerly had headquarters in London.

Churchill and Eden met the seven-man French committee of national liberation at a luncheon tendered yesterday by Admiral Sir Andrew Broun, Cunningham, naval commander-in-chief in the Mediterranean.

The proceedings were most cordial. Downing street said.

Churchill and the foreign secretary also visited liberated Tunisia, capital of the French protectorate of Tunisia, and reviewed American and British armies in northwest Africa.

DAMAGING PROPERTY

Complaint was registered by an owner of property in the 1200 block of East Washington street yesterday stating that boys were damaging porch awning.

ARGENTINE COUP OUSTS CASTILLO

rell and Vice-Admiral Sabad Seyro.

First official act of the military body was to pledge the country to the maintenance of democratic principles of government and continental solidarity.

The group was achieved by the March of 5,000 troops on the government house in Buenos Aires, immediately after which the country was placed under martial law.

President Castillo fled with members of his cabinet aboard the mine-sweeper Drummond which last was reported to have made its way to a point off the Uruguayan port of Colonia on the River Plate.

Report Of Several Deaths

There were reports that several officials had met death at the start of the revolt but confirmation of these reports was not obtainable immediately.

Gen. Ramirez was said to have installed Colonel Mendoza a chief of police in Buenos Aires to maintain order while another official was said to have assumed the functions of mayor of the capital.

Although the actual revolt was carried out by members of the armed forces several factions who had opposed Castillo supported the move. There were some pro-Fascists among the former president's opposition but the vast majority of those participating in the overthrow of Castillo are supporters of democracy.

There were some disturbances in the city, mostly resulting from demonstrations in support of the revolt, but conditions generally were normal.

Buenos Aires, June 5.—The overthrown Argentine regime of President Ramon S. Castillo departed from the picture today and this nation embarked upon a new policy of continental solidarity in the wake of a military revolution.

Former Foreign Minister Enrique Ruiz-Guinazu and four other members of the ousted Castillo regime arrived at Montevideo aboard the steamer Salto taking refuge in the Argentine embassy there.

Castillo himself wirelessly the Uruguayan government from aboard the gunboat Drummond asking permission to enter Montevideo.

Montevideo, June 5.—The Argentine mine-sweeper-gunboat Drummond, aboard which is the party of exiled President Ramon S. Castillo, steamed into the Montevideo roadstead today.

Castillo and other former Argentine government leaders who were thrown out of office in yesterday's army coup are expected to land at Montevideo later.

minette which met yesterday and accepted the recommendation by Lewis that the miners return to work Monday.

Knowing the War Labor Board again, the miners said that they were grateful to the efforts of the solid fuels administrator, Ickes, for his contribution and aid in trying to bring the negotiations to a successful conclusion.

The committee asked that all local unions renew work as soon as it can "conveniently be arranged with management" and called their attention to the fact that the truce had been extended only to June 20.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

ing that the war is essential to another Roosevelt election it is impossible to doubt that there are men here whose personal fortunes are so bound up with the President's political fortunes that they cannot help but prefer the war to end, say, in December, 1944, rather than in an earlier month. That is an ugly statement, but not many who know the extent to which his satellites and aides depend upon the President for everything they have in the world will dismiss it as untrue.

THE OTHER interesting point about the poll is the revelation that the group in which Mr. Roosevelt has his greatest strength is with the Negro voters. Seventy-eight and nine-tenths per cent of these favor his election if the war is on, but 612 per cent favor it, war or no war. This is a far higher favoring percentage than in any other group and it rather refutes the Republican contention that the Negro voters, after eight years of absence, have "returned home." Perhaps they have in Congressional and State elections and for other offices, but if the poll means anything, not when Mr. Roosevelt is running for President.

WITHOUT this overwhelming Negro support in the big Northern and border States, where it often is the balance of power, it is clear that Mr. Roosevelt would not stand a chance for a fourth term. This is an unpleasant thought for the Democratic South, whose solid electoral votes are basically essential for any Democratic candidate. It is particularly unpleasant at a time when the influence of both Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt is being used to repeal the poll tax which various Southern States regard as a protection against Negro political domination.

AS TO Mr. Wallace, the trouble seems to be, first, that the fourth termers have concluded he has no personal following, cannot deliver the farm vote and will bring no strength to the New Deal ticket; second, that his views have been modified and that he is now more inclined to favor the profit system than is compatible with the "true liberal." Mr. Wallace did recently write a letter which made him appear more radical and less vague than some of his more highly praised speeches. But he is still pretty Utopian and the disposition to ditch him is one of those strange things that so often occur in the upper New Deal circles. In this case it is manifested not by Mr. Roosevelt personally but by men personally very close to him, indeed. Mr. Wallace's friends are not perturbed. They think it a passing phase—and they probably are right.

Rose Avenue Pupils Give Music Festival

Young Musicians Display Talent In Two-Part Program Friday Night

On Friday night the Rose Avenue school auditorium was filled to capacity for the second performance of the music festival, when 150 pupils of the school presented a two-part program. After the opening number, "School Days," each pupil was given the opportunity to display his ability with the musical instrument of his choice, both individually and in an ensemble.

The exceptionally fine choruses offered various types of songs, the Jubilate Vesper Hymn being a choice number. The rhythm band took part in four well accepted numbers.

The second part of the program gave the nation's history in musical pantomime. The Boston Tea Party songs of the period of 76, Civil War and Stephen Foster favorites, plaintive Negro melodies, pioneer music, sketches of the gay times, popular first World War airs, and present-day patriotic songs, ending with "When the Lights Go On Again," the pledge of allegiance, and the "Star-Spangled Banner" finale.

At the conclusion, a beautiful gift was presented to each teacher directing the Misses Mildred Gresham and Verlee Armstrong.

Draft Board Has Corporal Puzzled

WILMINGTON, Del., June 5.—Corporal Daniel R. Parks of Wilmington today was puzzled over his draft board's definition of "military service."

Parks was a member of one of the first anti-aircraft contingents to leave Australia; he took part in the defense of Milne bay and numerous attacks on Jap convoys; he saw action in New Guinea for 11 months before he was hospitalized for shock.

Today he arrived home on an honorable discharge from the army—and found a notice from his draft board ordering him to report for military service.

Details of the convention plans have not yet been received by the post commander, Fred C. Duff, states, but the post will name its delegates anyhow, Tuesday.

GIRL SCOUTS CROWN QUEENS

Honors At Camp Divided Between Helen Marie Bowater And Dolores Jessop

ELLWOOD CITY, June 5.—Helen Marie Bowater and Dolores Jessop were crowned queens at the Girl Scout camp last night. Representing the senior unit, the girls took part in the honor. Selections by popular vote of the scouts who selected the best "good camper" for the honor.

Attendees from the military unit were Marilyn McCarthy and Alice Lee Craig, and junior attendants were Sylvia Berkowitz and Donna Wilson.

With Helen Fitzgerald as announcer, the scouts arrived at the court in couples dressed to represent famous people. The program included: Story book dramatization by the Bunny unit; paper bag puppet show by the Indian unit; signaling by the military unit and flower characters by the gypsy unit.

Members of the Girl Scout Council were guests at the camp for the ceremony during which Mrs. J. A. Pearson presented first class badges to Janice Evans and Sally Lou Williams, and Mrs. John H. Hough presented the senior service scout cap to Rose Mary Ralph. Mothers of the honored scouts pinned on the awards.

After dinner, the units enjoyed varied diversions. The Junior unit went on a stick and stone hunt in which they hunted for sticks and stones that represented various things. Barbara Boots won the award finding a stone that resembled the map of Pennsylvania. The Bunny unit found the most original ones.

The gypsy unit enjoyed an evening hike in charge of their leaders, Mildred Stewart, Virginia Goldberger, "Sandy" Sanderbeck, and Margaret Hummel. Dancing and singing occupied the military unit with Mrs. Ed. Hedberg directing.

Parents are to call for the scouts from 2 until 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

Australia was called New Holland at first.

Mae McClintick Weds Jack Kistner

Ceremony Performed Friday Night By Dr. W. E. Minter at U. P. Manse

ELLWOOD CITY, June 5.—A lovely June bride was Miss Alberta Mae McClintick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton McClintick, of Ellport, who became the bride of Jack Kistner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kistner, of Fomble, last evening.

The popular single ring ceremony was performed at 8:45 o'clock at the United Presbyterian church manse. Present were in the presence of the immediate families and friends from New Castle and Zelenople.

For her marriage, the bride chose an attractive powder blue dress with which she wore white accessories and a pretty corsage of rosebuds and orange blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snare were the attendants. Mrs. Snare was dressed in a becoming yellow ensemble with white accessories and her flowers were yellow rosebuds and sweet peas. After the ceremony, the couple, their attendants, and Miss Clara Marasana and Bob Ross enjoyed a wedding supper at an out-of-town dining room.

The bride is a graduate of the Ellwood high school with the class of '43 and has been employed by the Isaly Dairy company. Mr. Kistner graduated from Zelenople high school and is associated with the Aetna Standard Engineering company.

They are residing in the Simon apartments, 207 Lawrence avenue.

DEDICATE FLAG AT CAVERT PLANT

ELLWOOD CITY, June 5.—The Caver Wire company officially dedicated a beautiful 30-foot flag pole yesterday afternoon. Two very important flags are flying from the pole, namely, the American flag and the Minute Man flag which is emblematic of every employee of that company purchasing war bonds each pay day. The new flag pole is situated in a beautiful setting near the office of the company.

All employees of the firm are proud of the flag that flies from the breeze on the new pole. An honor roll flag is located inside the plant with a star on it for every employee who has left the Caver Wire company for the armed services.

Harold Caver, president, and Mr. Eberle, secretary of the company, also announced today that 98 boys who have played at some time or other on the West End playground, which is located behind the company property and owned by the Caver Wire company, are in the armed services of the country and 29 of them are overseas on fighting fronts.

William H. Cole Marks Birthday

Life-Long Ellwood Resident Observes Eightieth Anniversary On Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, June 5.—William H. Cole, of Wampum avenue, who has had the title of Ellwood's "oldest resident" bestowed upon him, celebrated fourscore years of living on Friday at the family residence.

Blessed with a good health, a multitude of interests, memories and philosophy gained through nearly a century of living, plus the companionship of a fine family, Mr. Cole is a happy and contented man.

Since his retirement from the National Tube Company several years ago, he has served as a tip-staff at the county courthouse, and has made a business of enjoying his leisure.

Throughout the day more than one hundred relatives and friends gathered at the home to offer best wishes, and in addition he received scores of greetings, many lovely flowers, and handsome gifts as tokens of esteem and affection.

Among the gifts was a beautiful lace point Bible from his associate elders of the Bell Memorial Presbyterian church. Blessed with good vision, Mr. Cole is able to read without glasses.

As the guests came and went, tea and other dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Ellis Guy, Mrs. Charles McKeough, Mrs. Frank Cole, Mrs. Ralph Straley and Mrs. Ralph Newton.

F. Nugent testified that Moore died of a fracture of the skull.

Three Bandits Get $4,500 In Chicago

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, June 5.—Police today hunted three armed bandits who reportedly kidnapped Albert J. Kemper, a Chicago banker, and robbed him of $4,500.

Kemper, who is president of the North Avenue Federal Savings and Loan Association, was abducted as he entered his office on the near northside yesterday afternoon, in view of dozens of passersby. He had just withdrawn $4,700 from the First National Bank.

The bandits, driving an automobile with stolen license plates, forced Kemper into their auto, and drove about half a mile before releasing him.

DRAFT EVASION RUSE DETECTED

(International News Service)
NEW ORLEANS, June 5.—Fines of $2,000 and $500 were levied against a New Orleans physician and his son, respectively, today for violating the selective service law.

The defendants, Dr. R. J. Mainegra, 52, and his son, Cyril M. Mainegra, 39, were also given suspended prison sentences.

The indictment said the father had caused another doctor, employed by him, to certify that young Mainegra was unfit for service and that the ruse was revealed when the son later passed a physical examination for a large life insurance policy.

Lawrence County Pomona Grangers Meet At Willard

All-Day Meeting Features Rural Sociology Professor
M. E. John

Lawrence County Pomona Grange members were guests of Willard Grange for their meeting, which took place on Wednesday.

With Pomona Master W. H. McCullough presiding, the business session was held in the morning, and reports were heard from the officers and subordinate and juvenile granges. They were welcomed by Francis Boak, master of Willard Grange, and the response was given by Mrs. Carl Heckathorn, of Plaingrove Grange.

It was announced that the lecturers' conference will be at State College, Pa., June 16-18.

As the afternoon session, the Misses Mary Lou Kildoe, Joan Shira and Carol Watkins favored with two good times. Edith Shira played a piano solo, a demonstration, "Save Those Pigs," was given by the Slippery Rock, Butler county, chapter of F. F. A. under the supervision of Walter Hess. The boys taking part were Kenneth Wimer and William Jervis.

Lewis Dayton introduced Dr. M. E. John, associate professor of rural sociology, Pennsylvania State College, who spoke on "The Need for a Second Home Front." He said in part, "We, as citizens of a democratic nation are first interested in winning the war, but it is possible to win the war and lose democracy at home. We, the people, must find solutions for our own problems. We are too quick to give up our rights. Let planners do our thinking and devise schemes. We need a second front dedicated to doing our own work, finding solutions for our own problems, and doing our own planning. Whether we have government of the people, by the people and for the people depends on us."

The memorial service was conducted by the Pomona chaplain, J. A. Boak, soloist for the service was Mrs. E. C. Wiggins. After flowers had been placed on the altar in memory of the deceased members, Hon. R. L. Wallace gave the memorial address.

At the evening session, Dr. M. E. John conducted a panel discussion on "Rural Youth Served in Wartime." Those taking part were Leonia McCombs, Helen Workley, Edwin Gardner, Charles McCullough, Sharp Fullerton and John Turner.

The rest of the evening was in charge of the young people, with Wilbur Robinson as chairman. The following program was presented: reading, Madge Neely, play, East New Castle Grange, reading, Dorothy Thompson; quartet, Pleasant

Hill Grange, solo, Betty Baird; play, Willard Grange, reading, June Bell; solo, Willis McCurley; stunt, "Truth or Consequences," Willard Bowden; double quartet, Big Beaver Grange; skit, New Bedford Grange; instrumental music, Raymond and Ralph McCracken; recognition of members in the service.

JAP SUICIDE-SUB COMING

JAP TWO-MAN SUBMARINE

When the Japanese hit with their sneak punch at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, one of the weapons they used was a two man suicide submarine. How many there were or how effective they were is still a military secret but one of the oversized mosquitoes was captured intact on the beach.

This suicide sub is now working for Uncle Sam as a sales agent for war bonds and stamps. On Monday June 14, Flag Day, the sub will be on display in New Castle and every purchaser of a war bond, which was purchased within a week of June 14 will be permitted to inspect the queer weapon.

The sub will be parked in front of the post office in the public square and a committee under the direction of Ross D. Rosenberger will have charge of the display.

The B. P. O. E. will hold its annual Flag Day exercises as a part of the exercises will be announced later.

The two man suicide sub is something new in warfare. It is designed strictly for a one way trip. Once it has exhausted its power it is through for there are no means of recharging batteries. This is the first time one of the undersides raiders have ever been seen here and June 14 will probably see a crowd of folks examining it. You can qualify for a ticket by purchasing a bond.

HAND INJURED

Mrs. Hortense Balue of Sankey street was treated at the New Castle hospital for lacerations of her hand Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Balue was cutting grass with a cycle when it slipped and cut her hand. She was permitted to return home after treatment.

YOUTH TAKEN ILL

Donald Rupert, aged 21 years, of Parkers Landing, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 7:45 o'clock Friday evening. He was taken ill while enroute to Grove City, as he started to walk away from the bus depot, and was taken to the hospital.

We all use senseless words, yet understand one another. Where's the sense in the saying, "He made no bones about it?"

'Love Nest' Case Ends In Shooting Of Young Girl

AKRON, O., June 5.—Charged with slaying 15-year-old Rosemary Chanderlin in a warehouse "love nest," William Schmidt, 30, father of two married children, today told police he "had to do it to break off our romance."

Schmidt said he and the girl agreed that he would shoot her as she lay on a sofa in a neatly furnished room in the warehouse of the Sun Radio Co., where he worked.

"We knew it had to come some time, but whenever one of us had the courage to break it off, the other couldn't stand it," Schmidt told authorities as he was arraigned on a first degree murder charge, pleaded not guilty and was bound over to the grand jury.

"I looked down at her as she lay on the sofa and suggested that I shoot her, wounding her only slightly, so I'd be jailed," Schmidt confessed. "She told me to go ahead and shoot, so I did."

He shot her in the head and she died a short time after reaching City hospital. Schmidt surrendered at the police station, also turning in a .32 calibre revolver.

Consistory To Have Reunion

Streamlined Convocation Of One Day Will Take Place In Cathedral Next Week

URGE MEMBERS TO OBEY RULES

Although the restrictions placed on unnecessary driving by the OPA are expected to cut down attendance and the presence of a large number of candidates who had previously made application for membership, the annual spring reunion of the Valley of New Castle Consistory will take place in The Cathedral, next Friday, June 11. Commander-in-Chief Howard Geary stated today.

The largest number of candidates which had petitioned the body in many years was ready to take the degrees, when the driving ban was issued, and Commander-in-Chief Geary called a conference of officers of the lodge to discuss the situation. They decided to go ahead with the reunion, but have issued a statement to the members, asking them to obey all regulations issued against unnecessary driving.

Members are asked to use other means of transportation in getting to the one-day gathering planned for next Friday. An effort is being made to secure housing accommodations for candidates who will be here over night for the reunion so that they can attend. Local members are cooperating in planning to take their meals at home, and every effort will be made by the body to cooperate with government regulations issued to aid the war effort.

PLAINGROVE HIGH ALUMNI REUNION DROPPED FOR 1943

Plaingrove high school's alumni reunion planned for June 12 has been cancelled for this year. The action was prompted by the ban on pleasure driving and other war demands, and was taken by the committee consisting of Robert Evans, president; Edwin Gardner, treasurer, and Mrs. J. Francis Boak, secretary.

Striking Decline In Health Standard For German Cities

Records Received In Britain Show Disease, Mortality High, Birth Rate Low

(International News Service) LONDON, June 5.—Striking, detailed evidence was revealed in London Friday of the greatly lowered health standard in Germany and of the inadequacy of civilian medical services to cope with a mounting disease-toll throughout the country. Records have been received in Britain of health conditions in all major German cities. A comparison of them to British standards confirms recent reports from Switzerland that sickness-casualties are becoming an important factor in weakening German production.

These records, official ones from towns and cities whose population totals a third of the entire German people, are being carefully studied by medical authorities here.

They disclose that in 1942 there were increases in infant mortality, in the suicide rate, and in the number of deaths from tuberculosis, diphtheria and scarlet fever. They reveal also a sharp decline in the birth rate.

"If the figures... applied to Great Britain we would have every reason to view the situation with great alarm," a high medical authority stated in reviewing the records.

FIRE SCARE

Residents of the boro were confused on Thursday night at 11:30 p. m., when the fire siren began to blow and continued to sound until air raid wardens, police and curious citizens investigated. Most of the houses went black as if for an air raid drill, but street lights remained on, and it was learned that a store window had been broken and the alarm automatically set off. Police are trying to locate the person or persons responsible.

'Air Umbrella' Over China Drives Japs Back From Chungking

Dr. Soong Reports Jap Attempted Wedge Toward Chinese Capital Is Repulsed

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, June 5.—Declaring that China has an "air umbrella for the first time," Dr. T. V. Soong reported Friday to President Roosevelt that the Japanese drive toward Chungking has been beaten back and turned into an enemy "rout."

"China for the first time has an air umbrella," Dr. Soong said on leaving the White House after a conference with Mr. Roosevelt. "What a world of difference it makes."

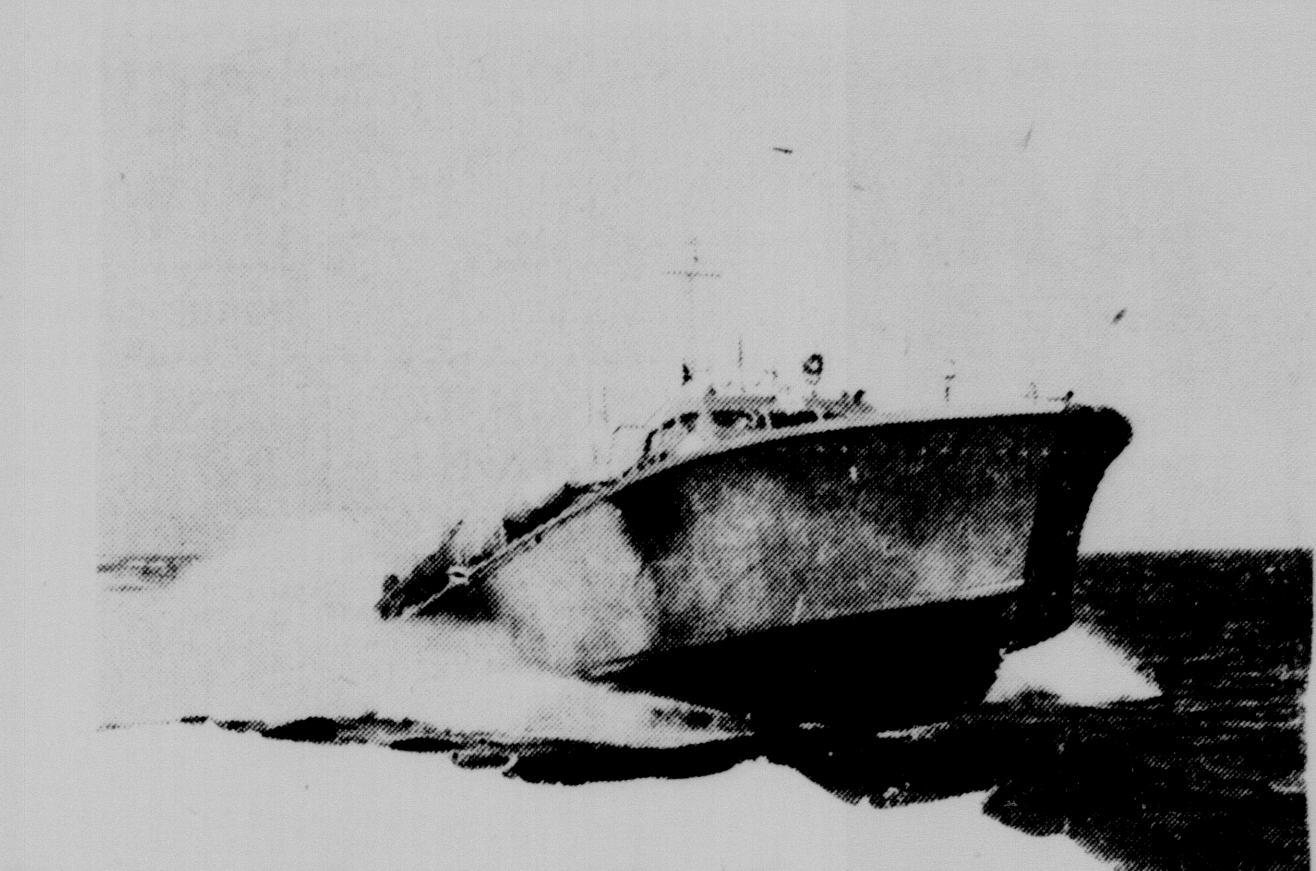

"Chungking is now safe," the Chinese foreign minister said with a noticeable trace of elation in his voice. Dr. Soong explained that the Japs, with 100,000 infantry troops, tried to drive a wedge toward Chungking to take the Chinese capital. Chinese forces, assisted by Chinese and American air squadrons, first forced the Japs to retreat, and the retreat Dr. Soong added, "now appears to be turning into an enemy rout."

He told reporters that the successful Chinese operation shows again the troops of his country were "really going out in force" against the enemy.

Shipbuilding

Transportation by water has always been considered a slow and tedious method. As such it was used only for merchandise and materials that could stand delay.

This opinion was universal . . . until our navy brought out the famous "P. T. Boats." The record performance established by this revolutionary type of craft has started some of our best shipbuilding minds to plan great things in ships for after the war. The factor that brought about this change in boat building was POWER . . . both in the generating and transmission. Johnson Bronze Sleeve Type Bearings has helped make this possible. Our product is now going into every type of water craft being constructed. When peace returns this important industry will continue to operate at a high level . . . replacing the ships that have been sunk with newer lighter and faster boats . . . obsoleting the ships that cannot be converted.

Here is another example of why the future looks bright for Johnson Bronze. Our product has many more peace time uses than war time demands. Our standard of quality cannot be surpassed by competition.

Consequently we shall continue to grow . . . continue to provide steady employment to the citizens of our community.

AN EQUALITY OF SACRIFICE WILL EASE THE GAS SHORTAGE

There is no question of a shortage of gasoline, and the reason is apparent. Those huge bombers need plenty of gas if they are to be kept flying and quite naturally all of us in civilian life must use less than we have been. That goes for individuals, truck operators and bus lines.

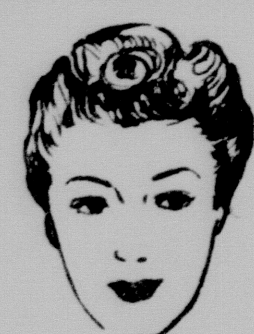

As truck operators, hauling an average of some 4,000-5,000 pounds of essential freight in and out of Lawrence County per day we have already made drastic cuts in the use of gasoline. Further cuts may mean delays of war materials and guns piled on a loading dock will not help a soldier on the fighting front.

In all fairness, we believe an equality of sacrifice would ease the shortage. If the reductions in the use of gasoline were spread over a larger territory it would result in a more equitable division of gasoline for civilian uses and more gasoline for the armed forces.

This war means sacrifice and as Americans we pledge ourselves to any sacrifice that will aid the war effort. Sacrifice should not be confined to any one area, however, and in the matter of gasoline we believe other areas should be asked to share in necessary restrictions.

Rampaging Pittsburgh Pirates Win Fifth Straight

Flatten Giants By 9-8 Count; Yanks Win, 6-4

Vince DiMaggio Leads Attack With 7th Homer; Cards, Dodgers Cop

INDIANS SHADE MACK NINE, 3-2

NEW YORK, June 5.—Followers of the Pittsburgh Pirates today are tossing superlatives in all directions. The Frisch-managed aggregation currently ranks as one of the hottest teams in the majors. Under the arc lights Friday, the Blues rolled in their fifth straight and 10 of 12 triumphs at the expense of eastern clubs by defeating the Giants, 9-8.

The rampaging Buccos took the starch out of the Manhattaners by scoring six runs in a big fourth inning. Vince DiMaggio featured the attack by smashing his seventh round-tripper with two mates on board. The Giants tallied five markers in the eighth—when it was too late.

Cubs Hit Low The Chicago Cubs, floundering all season, were credited with reaching a new all-time low for 1943.

The club which was picked by many to wind up in the first division, and named by a few as pennant possibilities, sunk deeper into the cellar under an 18 to 5 lacing by the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday. The Dodgers made seven of their runs with two out in the first inning and went on from there to make an utter shambles of the premises as they protected their National League lead with a one-sided conquest.

The victory went to Buck Newsum, who thus scored his sixth of the season. Meantime, the St. Louis Cardinals were staying up there close to the Dodgers with a 5 to 0 victory over Philadelphia Phillies. Mort Cooper buried his triumph and for the second consecutive game allowed only one hit. He has won six straight against three defeats.

The victories by the Dodgers and the Cardinals left the latter just one game behind the Dodgers in the standings.

Gordon Homers Joe Gordon's 10th inning two-run home run gave the New York Yankees a 6 to 4 victory over the St. Louis Browns to leave the Yanks out in front in the American League.

Detroit took over second place in the standings by beating Washington, 2 to 1.

The Chicago White Sox scored four runs in the first inning to down the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 3.

Southpaw Al Smith allowed only four hits as the Cleveland Indians pounded out a 2 to 2 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Indians made 12 hits in clinching the victory.

SEVENTEEN HOSSES IN CHICAGO RACE CHICAGO, June 5.—Seventeen horses were entered today in the $5,000 Stager handicap of the Lincoln Fields meeting to be run this afternoon at Hawthorne track.

The six and a half furlong sprint for three-year-olds and up has drawn an exceptional field with Woolford Farm's Signator and Pig Tails among the leading favorites.

Dominick Dallesandro, the Cubs' "Mister Five by Five," is 19 pounds lighter this season.

Chicago Cardinals Will Continue Play In Pro Grid Loop

Conzelman's Resignation Surprises Charles Bidwell, Club Owner

CHICAGO, June 5.—Charles Bidwell, owner of the Chicago Cardinals in the National Football League, said today that the resignation of Jimmy Conzelman as coach would not alter his plans to continue operation of the club during the 1943 season.

Bidwell was surprised by the action of Conzelman who quit football to go to St. Louis as assistant to Donald Barnes, president of the St. Louis Browns. He will be in charge of the Browns' public relations department and will serve in the same capacity for the American Investment Company of Illinois, of which Barnes also is the head.

Conzelman's successor as coach for the Cardinals had not been selected although Bidwell admitted he was considering Phil Handler, who has been assistant coach for the last three years.

Conzelman was expected to return to Chicago from St. Louis to find up his affairs. In addition to his coaching duties with the Cardinals, he had been acting as assistant to the president of the Keeshin Freight Lines and it was understood he would remain temporarily in an advisory capacity.

In the three years Conzelman coached the Cardinals, they never finished better than in fourth position, but they were handicapped by injuries, particularly last season when a number of key men were out at the same time.

Encourages Sports; Sees No Possibility For Extra Gasoline, However

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Harold L. Ickes, as coordinator of fisheries and at the same time petroleum administrator, said today that "we still think it's a good idea for sportsmen to fish when they can and where they can without extra gasoline."

There is no possibility of getting extra gasoline rations for sport fishermen, Ickes said. He advised sportsmen to try brooks near home.

Looks Like Count Fleet again in the $25,000 added Belmont stakes at Belmont park today and if the Count wins he will be the sixth horse to win the triple crown (Derby, Preakness and Belmont) and the second to add the Withers to that list of triumphs. Sir Barton turned the trick in 1919.

Fritz Manhart and Deseronto, finely bred horses, will be the Count's opposition today. He is expected to go to the posts 1 to 20, the least he can pay in the mutuels.

Tom McMahon is now attached to the Charn House in Cleveland where Joe Tuma holds forth. Joe formerly managed the Shepherd brothers, one of whom boxed for the writer in a police fight at Taggart stadium, a few years ago.

Fritzie Zivic and Jake La Motta will do their "stuff" Thursday. Only two per cent of the fans who had bought reservations returned them after rain forced a postponement. Not likely many will risk ration cards by driving from this section to Canada for fishing this summer.

BLAME MATERIAL Buffalo baseball fans are not blaming the new manager, Greg Mulleirs, for the team's poor standing. The material is admittedly poor. Greg managed Jamestown last year, and formerly was a star at short for the Bisons.

MOVES UP FAST Last fall Count Fleet was 248th among all-time money winners on the track. After the Preakness this spring he was 26th. His handlers expect him to be among the first ten in a few weeks.

VETERAN WRIGHT WINNER BY KAYO

Scores 5-Round Knockout Over Phil Terranova On Friday Night

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 5.—Chalky Wright, the veteran former feather-weight champion, seemed set today for a title rematch with Willie Pep, who dethroned him last November. Wright completely outclassed his opponent, Phil Terranova, in a match last night and finally a k.d. him in the fifth round. The 23-year-old Terranova, who is a comparative newcomer to the big time, was completely floored by Wright, who is about twice his age.

Lopsided Fight Terranova won the first round by a scant margin, but went down in the second for a count of eight. In the fifth when he took a final right to the head, Terranova concentrated mostly on finding a good place to fall. In the fifth when he took the final right to the head, Terranova went down, pulled himself up on his knee at the count of six, then flopped over on his back. He was all through.

Count Seeks Triple Crown

Fleet 1 To 20 Favorite To Nail Famous Belmont Stakes Today

By LAWTON CARVER (International News Service Sports Editor)

BELMONT PARK, New York, June 5.—Count Fleet sought today to become the sixth great American race horse to win the triple crown of turfdom, and because of the lack of competition in the field it was regarded as a possibility that he would be sent toward a new record in the Belmont stakes.

The Hertz hurricane was established as a one to 20 favorite in the 75th or diamond jubilee running of the venerable Belmont and was regarded as a certain winner by as many lengths as might suit Johnny Longden, who has ridden him in all his important starts.

Opposition Weak His opponents in the triple crown clincher, if they can be called that, were Fairy Manhart from the Foxcatcher Farms and Deseronto, owned by Beverly Bogert.

If either of these two outsiders—which are competing strictly for the $5,000 second prize and $2,500 that goes to third—should out-foot the Count it would be the biggest upset in modern racing history. The favorite is so outstanding that they couldn't even find a horse to run for the $1,000 fourth prize.

Joe DiMaggio's eyes are still 20-20 on a baseball field. The ex-Yankee clipper boosted his consecutive hitting streak to 13 games up to yesterday. He's playing with the Santa Ana Army Air Base nine. . . . Don Savage, the Newark Bears' third sacker, downed a dose of medicine before every game. He's 4-F in the draft but 1-A on the team. . . . Danny Litwhiler, who was rescued from the Phils by the Cards, played 176 games before committing an error. . . .

Joe Medwick is a pipe collector. The mass of smoking pieces is valued at more than $500. That's more than his hitting is worth these days. . . . Sonny Horne has been offered $10,000 to fight Jake LaMotta in Boston. And just a couple of years back, the Niles ace was drawing down dough on and off coffee money around here. . . . A No. 17 shorpen is required for spiked track shoes. That's not troubling Boo Morcon, New Hampshire's pole vault ace. He jumps with one shoe on—the other off!

Newsom Shapes Up As 20-Game Winner

Louis Norman (Buck) Newsom

Newsom was 19 when he hurried professionally for the first time. He began his career with Raleigh in the Piedmont league and then advanced through Wilmington and Macon to Brooklyn. After being used as a relief twirler for the Dodgers in 1929 and '30, Newsom went back to the minors.

Travels A Lot His next major league affiliation was with the Chicago Cubs of the National League. Then followed a series of train rides which found Newsom stopping at Albany, Los Angeles, St. Louis (A. L.), Washington, Boston (A. L.), Detroit, Washington and Brooklyn.

Prior to this season, Newsom's complete major league totals reveal he has won 146 games against 141 losses.

At the moment he is the ace of the Dodger mound staff.

VANDERBILT U. DROPS FOOTBALL

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 5.—There will be no varsity football team at Vanderbilt university this fall, Chancellor O. C. Carmichael indicated today.

"Some football may be played," the chancellor said in his report to the school's board of directors, "but clearly there can be no varsity team."

He said that only three of the school's 1942 players would return to the campus in September.

JOHN KIMBROUGH STARTS TRAINING PECOS, Tex., June 5.—Johnny Kimbrough, two-time All-American fullback for the Texas Aggies, has begun his basic flying training at the Pecos army air field.

Kimbrough, an All-American in 1939 and 1940 and later a star with the New York Giants of the American Professional Football League was transferred to the air force from the infantry.

MOORE TALENTED Dee Moore, Brooklyn catcher, can pitch and play the outfield.

Sports Ramblings

Quick look into the sports arcade:—

"Do the boys overseas really want sports back home continued?" The tall military figure, himself a top notch polo player, smiled, took a sip and repeated the question. Maj. George P. Mitchell, who returned recently after spending about a year across, then commented, "Yes, our boys really want sports. Everywhere I went, the boys talked and argued about sports. Baseball, boxing and football seemed to be the toppers."

Continuing, the personality-filled localite said, "A sports page from back home is really a valuable item around camp. The boys read every word on the page. That should give you an idea. Our boys, by the way, are learning to play Rugby football and getting a big kick out of the British game. In turn, our boys play football, the American way. The British enjoy watching our game, despite the fact that the technicalities are a bit too deep for them."

At Jones, a top ranking tennis and ping pong player here for several years, is still a whiz in both sports. He recently won the Bainbridge Field (Bainbridge, Georgia) ping pong championship. . . . Bob Mahes the demon West Side outfielder is in North Africa. . . . Ben Franklin has completed the greatest sports year in the history of the Cunningham avenue school. The "Patriots" didn't lose a basketball, football or track decision to any local junior high school. The mark is a tribute to the coaching aptitude of "Austie" Cowmeadow. . . .

Joe DiMaggio's eyes are still 20-20 on a baseball field. The ex-Yankee clipper boosted his consecutive hitting streak to 13 games up to yesterday. He's playing with the Santa Ana Army Air Base nine. . . . Don Savage, the Newark Bears' third sacker, downed a dose of medicine before every game. He's 4-F in the draft but 1-A on the team. . . . Danny Litwhiler, who was rescued from the Phils by the Cards, played 176 games before committing an error. . . .

Joe Medwick is a pipe collector. The mass of smoking pieces is valued at more than $500. That's more than his hitting is worth these days. . . . Sonny Horne has been offered $10,000 to fight Jake LaMotta in Boston. And just a couple of years back, the Niles ace was drawing down dough on and off coffee money around here. . . . A No. 17 shorpen is required for spiked track shoes. That's not troubling Boo Morcon, New Hampshire's pole vault ace. He jumps with one shoe on—the other off!

GUNDER HAEGG DUE TO ARRIVE NEXT TUESDAY

Ferris Reiterates That Swede Track Star Will Vie In AAU Meet

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 5.—Dan Ferris, secretary of the A. A. U. reiterated today that Gunder Haegg, sensational Swedish distance runner, would compete in the National A. A. U. championships in New York, June 19 and 20.

Haegg is enroute to this country aboard a tanker and is scheduled to dock to New Orleans Tuesday.

"Haegg accepted an invitation from the A. A. U. to run in the meet," Ferris said. "And that is why we are bringing him here."

"Unlike in a professional debut there is no financial loss sustained should he suffer a defeat in his first American start. I'm sure the American public will appreciate that he'll be competing under a handicap, two weeks after a twenty-six day sea voyage. He will have several other races here in which he can redeem himself should he meet defeat in the championships."

Nile Kinnick, Football Star, Dies In Action

Sad News Announced Today; Iowa U. Great "Player Of Year" In 1939

(BULLETIN) (International News Service)

OMAHA, Neb., June 5.—Nile Kinnick, former Iowa University all-American football star, has been killed in action, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Nile Kinnick of Omaha, were notified today by the Navy Department.

His next major league affiliation was with the Chicago Cubs of the National League. Then followed a series of train rides which found Newsom stopping at Albany, Los Angeles, St. Louis (A. L.), Washington, Boston (A. L.), Detroit, Washington and Brooklyn.

Prior to this season, Newsom's complete major league totals reveal he has won 146 games against 141 losses.

At the moment he is the ace of the Dodger mound staff.

6 (2) Softballers Gain Championship

Lambast 5 (1) Crew, 14-4, As Thaddeus Stevens Tournery Comes To Close

Cutting loose with a barrage of base hits, the 6 (2) class won the Thaddeus Stevens softball tournery championship by walloping the 5 (1) troupe, 14-4, Friday afternoon.

Tommy Clarke led the assault by poking out two homers. Robert Irwin also smashed a circuit blow for the champs. For the losers, Louis Moses contributed a base-cleaner.

Joe Pizzitelli, and Jack Mitchell drew the pitching and catching assignment for the title winners. Charles Richards and Bruce Kerr formed the losing battery. Reed starred in the field for the losers, while James Doone played brilliantly for the victors.

Robert Doone, a former Thaddeus Stevens student, kept score, while Peter Grille umpired.

COLMAN EX-PITCHER Frank Colman, Pirie's rookie outfielder, was a pitcher when he entered the game in 1939. An arm injury brought the switch.

ARMY-PENN U. MEET ON GRID

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Army's football team, originally slated to meet Harvard on Oct. 30 before the latter school dropped the sport, will play Pennsylvania at Franklin Field here on that date.

By Name of Mack

NOT THAT CONNIE MACK, 50, has any idea of retiring as pilot of the Philadelphia Athletics, but if and when he does his son, Earle, 51, will succeed him. Mr. Mack told reporters that "Earle is going to be the next manager of the Athletics if they ever have one." Earle joined the A's in 1924 after a minor league career. (International)

TWENTY CASH IN BIG DAILY DOUBLE

(International News Service)

BOSTON, June 5.—Twenty Suffolk Downs racing fans had a hatful of dough today. They each paired "Smart Looking" in the first race yesterday with "Night Pennant" in the second to win $1023.40 for $2.

It was the largest daily double payoff of the New England racing season.

Forces Overseas To Hear Star Tilt

Radio Rights For July 13 Major League Classic Sold For $25,000

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 5.—Radio rights for the 1943 all-star baseball game between picked teams of the National and American Leagues today became the property of the Gillette Safety Razor company.

The game, which will be played under the lights in Shibe Park, Philadelphia, July 13, will be broadcast exclusively over the Mutual Broadcasting System network. A short wave broadcast of the game also will be sent to American forces overseas.

Announcement of the deal was made by Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, who said the Gillette company paid $25,000 for the radio rights. All receipts will be turned over to the major league's baseball equipment fund for the armed forces.

Legion League To Open Monday

Chairman Earl C. Moffatt, of the American Legion Junior League, announced today that the league will start its schedule on Monday evening with another round on Friday.

All managers are asked to communicate with Mr. Moffatt regarding the schedule. Sunday evening.

The opening week's schedule is as follows:

Monday
Fannins vs. Forrest Cubs, Lehigh field.

Ramblers vs. Cozy Corner, George Washington grounds.
Penguins vs. Dean Park Dodgers, Dean Park.
Wolverines vs. Ryantown Juniors, Ryantown.

Friday
Cozy Corner vs. Fannins, at George Washington field.
Forrest Cubs vs. Ramblers, at Marshall field.
Wolverines vs. Penguins, at Gas-ton Park.
Ryantown Juniors vs. Dean Park Dodgers, at Dean Park.

What's New?

BROOK PITCHING The Brook Roscamans (Calif.) baseball team is best known to the nation's fans because Pvt. Johnny Brooca, formerly of the Yankees, is one of its pitchers. But it's further distinguished as an armed service ball club having a major in its outfield. Major Wm. Saunders of the Fort Recess outfield also is officer in charge of the team.

SIX MILE TRACK A six-mile track for cross country runs is one of the physical conditioning facilities at Amarillo (Tex.) Army Air field. Markers such as "1 mile to Tokyo" are placed along the course.

IGNORE SEASONS Sports traditional calendar is being upset by soldiers and sailors. Basketball and football competition, normally dormant at this time of the year, is extensive in the Army and Navy establishments' intramural athletic programs.

GARMS 34 Deb Garms, brought back to the majors by the Cards, will be 34 years old this month. He can fill in at third as well as in the outfield.

PATRIOTIC STUNT Big Ten football teams will play approximately half their games at Army and Navy posts next fall.

Indictments Are Returned Against Carnegie-Illinois

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 5.—J. Lester Perry, president of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, today predicted "complete exoneration" for his company when the "full facts" of the charges of defrauding the government on war contracts are laid in open court.

"We are confident that when the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation is afforded the opportunity to present the full facts in the matter in court, the outcome will be complete exoneration," Perry declared.

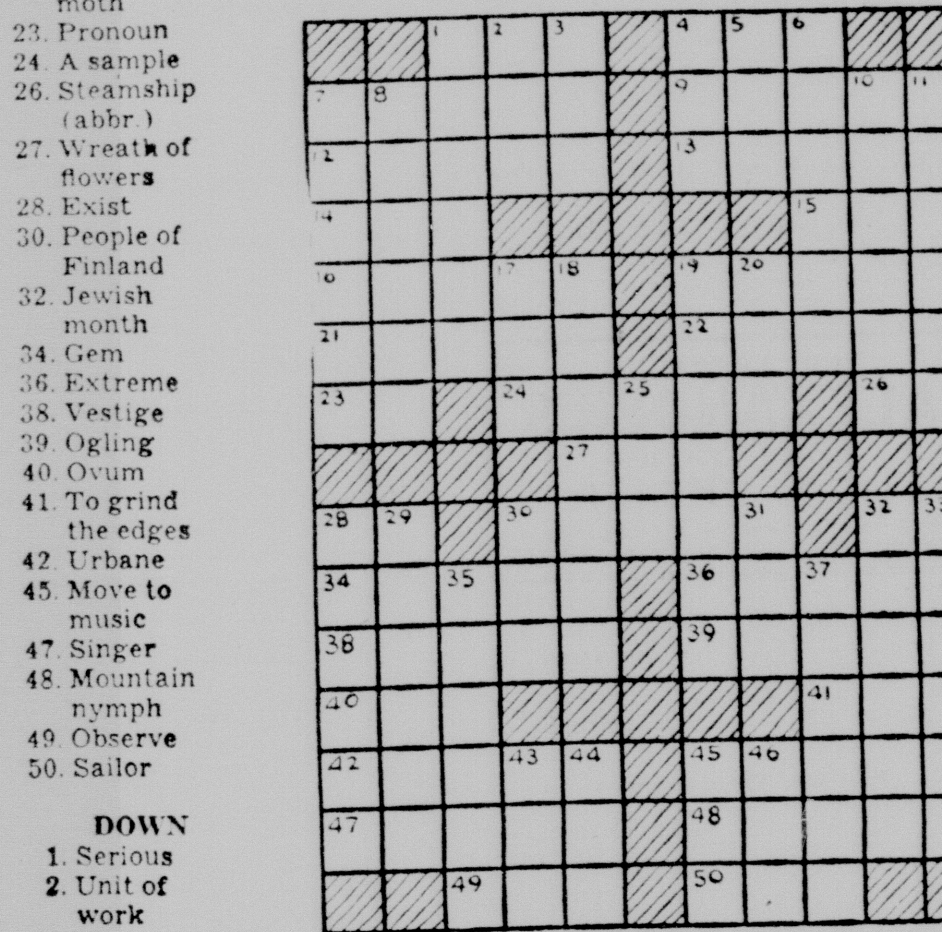

The key United States Steel Corporation subsidiary was indicted late yesterday for the second time in a week this time on 47 counts of falsifying certificates on steel plates supplied the maritime commission and lend-lease.

Also named by the extraordinary grand jury in this second indictment was Lawrence S. Dahl, general superintendent of the Iron Works, Carnegie-Illinois plant where it is alleged the wholesale test "faking" took place.

Amazing British Secret Service Exploit Is Told

Agent's Visit To Europe Shows Careful Groundwork For Invasion Being Laid

ALLIED UNDERGROUND IN EUROPE REVEALED

By J. C. OESTREICHER
International News Service Foreign Editor

One of the most astonishing examples of British secret service work in Nazi-dominated Europe came to light in London today and emphasized that the Allied invasion of Adolf Hitler's tortured continent occurs it will not be without carefully planned preliminary groundwork.

With important military developments lacking except for new sea and air attacks upon the island of Pantelleria and a Royal Air Force sweep against northern France, the most significant occurrence was the announcement that George Gibson, chief of the British Trade Union Congress, has completed a secret visit to Europe and established semi-official communication with leading democratic elements in Central European and Balkan countries.

For obvious reasons, activities of the British secret service arm since the war began have been little publicized. But Gibson's trip, reported to have met with greatest success in Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria, shed the first real light on the Allied underground organization which exists in Europe.

When the moment comes for Allied troops to stage their long-awaited invasion, this group of pro-democratic patriots will play a leading and probably self-sacrificial role. How great the organization is numerically will not be known until its members rise in revolt and pave the way for an Allied march into Berlin.

Bitter Lesson For Nazis
The Germans have taken extraordinary measures to deal with the British system by means of their own counter-espionage, with varying degrees of success. They learned a bitter lesson some months ago when the Royal Air Force bombed a resort on the Channel coast. The proprietors of the Casino chose that night to stage an open house party for the German garrison nearby, inviting the Nazis to come in and drink to their heart's content.

A few minutes before the bombers arrived, the gracious host made a hurried exit and headed for England aboard a boat. His casino was leveled to the ground and Hitler's army was reduced by some 700 high-ranking officers. Needless to say, the whole affair had been arranged in advance by the British secret service.

Adds To Invasion Jitters
Britain's action in making public the announcement of Gibson's trip was the latest contribution to the nerve war which is increasing the invasion fears in jittery Europe.

The Rome radio belched with exhortations to the Italian populace to "remain calm" and the bane of Benito Mussolini's existence—the "ghost voice" which breaks into Axis broadcasts—interrupted with this admonition:

"It is all in vain. The hour of liberation is coming. Down with Hitler!"

Other dispatches told of feverish defense preparations by the Nazis all along the French, Dutch and Belgian coasts.

Port Of Naples Hit
The new sea and air raids on Pantelleria in the Mediterranean meanwhile coincide with a heavy new attack on the Port of Naples, which British Wellington bombers hit with heavy calibre bombs.

Nazi fighter planes raided a town on the southwest coast of England with bombs and machine-guns, but only civilian casualties and damage were reported.

Furious air activity continued in the Kuban Valley of the Caucasus, where Russian planes knocked down another 23 Axis craft, while steady advances were reported for Chinese troops moving against the Japanese base of Ichang in Hupeh province.

Bad weather limited operations in the Southwest Pacific, but Gen. Douglas MacArthur's bombers made new raids on Babo in Dutch New Guinea and Lautem on the island of Timor. Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced Friday.

Heavy bombers which hit the enemy base at Babo and strafed installations at Dobo, on Aru Island, shot down one of six Japanese floatplanes in combat and damaged a seventh.

In the attack on Lautem, one also assaulted the day before, two big Allied planes which bombed the harbor at dawn encountered four enemy fighters, one of which was shot down in flames. In his previous day's attack on Lautem, one of five attacking Jap fighters was shot down.

Medium bombers bombed and strafed the Jap base at Madang, Australian New Guinea, and nearby installations. A heavy bomber bombed the Jacquinot area of New Britain.

SCRAP COLLECTION
(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 5.—Scrap collections reported today by the State Defense Council totaled 172,934 tons received from 26 counties. The goal for Pennsylvania's 67 counties is 276,000 tons.

The drive ended last Saturday and reports are still coming in to State Salvage Secretary Colley S. Baker. Counties which have exceeded their quotas are Allegheny, Cambria, Elk, Forest, Luzerne, McKean, Montour and Warren.

Kansas was named for a tribe of the Sioux Indians, the "People of the South Wind."

Body Of Miner Is Found In River
(International News Service)
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., June 5.—A Riverside miner, Frank Susan, about 50, was found dead in the Monongahela river last night with a rope trussed around his legs. Deputy Sheriff W. M. Bowers reported Friday.

He said the body was badly decomposed and expressed belief the man had been murdered and thrown into the river.

Bowers added that Dr. C. C. Fenton, of the university of West Virginia, had performed an autopsy and found no water in the victim's lungs. The body was discovered late yesterday by a boy who had been rowing in the river near the DuPont plant here.

Identification was established through a number on Susan's coat, which was traced to a Fairmont tailor. Bowers said he saw no connection between the man's death and the present coal strike.

SENDING PICTURE OF BATTERY F
Staff Sgt. Marion S. Derzypolski Sends Picture Of Remaining Group

Staff Sgt. Marion S. Derzypolski, well known New Castle boy, sends a copy of a picture recently taken of the New Castle and Lawrence county boys who are now in Battery F, 190th P. A.

This picture was taken in England, where the battery has been stationed.

Of the 68 boys who left New Castle as members of Battery F over two years ago to start their training to lick the Axis, only 24 now remain together. Perhaps by this time the number may have dwindled even more, through transfers to officers training school or other units.

In this group are First Lieut. William G. Patterson of New Castle, First Sgt. Lester Jenkins, S. Sgts. Marion S. Derzypolski, Ben Hamed, LeRoy Hill, Sgts. Reiter and Harry Buchowski; Corps, Milton Jameson, George Eve, Randall Beck, Alvin Wilson, Adam Smith, Wilbur Thomas, Russell Wilson of New Wilmington, James McGivern and John McWilliams, and Pfc. Carl Layton, Andrew Frontinus, Loyal White, Walter Slack, John Palmer, Delford Morrison and Pfc. Paul Marcella and Edwin Minner.

Health Talks
By DR. W. A. WOMER
City Health Superintendent

ROUGHAGE
We talk a lot about digestion and nourishment. We figure on protein and sugar and fat. We calculate calories. This is good. We also need to eat some indigestible stuff. The intestines, or intestinal tract, or bowels are in continual movement from above downward. This is called peristalsis. The movement pushes the contents onward. There must be something to work on. A large amount of air is swallowed. There could be some material which is not absorbed, to help keep the bowel inflated. This material is provided by fruits and vegetables and cereals. Hulls, skins and fibres, should be eaten to provide roughage. Some fruits such as apples, pears, figs and dates may be eaten, skins and all. Potatoes, cooked in their jackets may be eaten skin and all too. Tomatoes, celery, parsnips and other vegetables supply lots of roughage. If fruits, vegetables and cereals are eaten in their natural state, if bran and such things besides, too much is just as bad as too little.

Nominates Bradley
Lieutenant General
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 5.—Maj. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, commander of the second United States Army Corps in North Africa, on Friday was nominated by President Roosevelt to be a lieutenant general. Gen. Bradley is a former commander of the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga., and commanded the 82nd and later the 28th Divisions in this country. In May, 1943, he succeeded Lt. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., as commander of the 21st Corps in North Africa.

TWO-TERM LIMIT BILL
GAINING FAVOR WITH DEMOCRATIC SENATORS
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 5.—Ten Democratic senators Friday backed the Bailey resolution for a constitutional amendment limiting future presidents to two terms, as some others privately pledged support. Phrased so that it would not apply to President Roosevelt, if nominated for a fourth term, the resolution gathered unexpected strength among Democratic senators. Republicans also indicated their support, despite the exception. A canvass indicated that the resolution would be supported by 52 to 55 senators at this time. A two-thirds majority, or 64, would be needed to pass it and send it to the house.

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA
NEEDED AT INDUCTION
(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 5.—High school graduates must present their graduation certificates when reporting for induction into the armed services, Lt. Col. George H. Hafer, acting state selective service director, asserted today. He explained that if certificates are not presented, registrants must remain at the induction station before leaving on furloughs until it has been determined whether they must take mental tests.

County Convention
Next Wednesday
Sunday School Workers To Gather At Epworth Church; Many Program Features

Next Thursday, June 10, Epworth Methodist church, the 105th convention of the Lawrence County Sabbath School association convenes, and from all indications this will be a noteworthy gathering of Sunday school leaders and members from all over Lawrence county.

The ladies of the convention church are making preparation for the noon "Victory" dinner and the "Victory" fellows' banquet. They are requesting that reservations be in not later than Monday, if possible, to provide roughage.

After the opening devotionals, in charge of Rev. A. M. Stevenson, the business session and the convention sermon by Dr. R. F. Galbreath, president of Westminster college, there will be three conference and instructive periods: adult and administrative, children's and young people's.

The children's division specialist from Pittsburgh, Mrs. J. E. McDowell, is a teacher of the North Boroughs Weekly School of Religious Education, supervisor of teachers in the Bellevue U. P. Sabbath school and a member of the faculty of the Allegheny County Leadership Training schools.

Dr. G. S. Bennett, Rev. W. A. Thornton, State Association Grand Secretary Walter E. Myers, are all on the afternoon program, and the closing prayer will be given by the Rev. Dr. Robert B. Whyte, minister of the Old Stone church, Cleveland, O. Dr. Whyte is one of the outstanding Christian leaders of today.

The message of the evening session will be delivered by Dr. W. W. Wiant, minister of the Emory Methodist church of Pittsburgh. This church has a Bible class with enrollment of about 600. His subject will be, "The Church of Tomorrow."

Would Direct Military Action Of All French Forces Fighting With Allies
(International News Service)
ALGIERS, June 5.—The newly-established French committee of liberation which will rule all French territory not dominated by the Axis was expected at its meeting Friday to name a commander-in-chief for all armed forces fighting with the Allies against the Axis. It was fully expected that the committee of seven would name Gen. Henri Honoré Giraud, who holds the presidency jointly with Gen. Charles De Gaulle, as military commander. Since the Allied invasion of North Africa Gen. Giraud has been the commander of French forces in this theater. A formal appointment would give him military leadership of those forces formerly operating as the fighting French under Gen. De Gaulle.

One of the first official acts of the new government was to replace three French administrative officials opposed by De Gaulle because of their former affiliations with collaborationists of the Vichy regime. Gen. Georges Catroux, Gen. De Gaulle's liaison officer in the long drawn-out "unity" negotiations between De Gaulle and Giraud, was named governor-general of Algeria, succeeding Marcel Peyrouton. Gen. Catroux also was given control of all Moslem affairs in the French empire. Gen. Gabriel Paux, former high commissioner of Syria, became resident general of French Morocco, succeeding Gen. Charles Nogues. Gen. René Bouscat succeeded Gen. Jean M. Mendigal as French air chief in North Africa.

The present seven-man government, ultimately to be replaced by a government to be chosen by the French people after victory is won, will be enlarged in the near future. Present members of the committee of liberation, besides De Gaulle and Giraud, are Gen. Catroux, Gen. Alphonse-Joseph Georges, Jean Monnet, Rene Massigli and Andre Philip.

Banking Committee
Balks At Subsidies
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 5.—The senate banking committee Friday adopted an amendment to the Commodity Credit Corporation bill prohibiting use of its funds to pay subsidies under the "roll-back" price order of the OPA.

The action was a direct blow at the administration's price control program. It was regarded as significant because the same committee drafted the anti-inflation bill passed by congress.

MARTIN VETÔES BILL FOR GEOLOGIC FUND
(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 5.—Gov. Edward Martin today vetoed a measure creating a special fund in the state treasury to be known as the topographic and geologic survey fund. The chief executive said he had already signed a similar measure. The bill also provided for the transfer of certain moneys in the proposed fund by the department of internal affairs and included an appropriation. It was sponsored by Assemblymen Kenneth H. Wagner and Fred P. Hare, Jr., Somerset County Republicans.

COURT HOLDS TRAIN WRECK SABOTAGE; NO DAMAGES AWARDED
(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Judge Joseph L. Kun Friday reversed a $10,000 verdict in favor of Mrs. Mary McDonald of Lakemont, near Altoona for personal injuries and the death of her infant son in the derailment of a Pennsylvania railroad train near Baden, Pa., in March, 1941.

In reversing the ruling, Judge Kun sustained the contention of the carrier that the wreck was caused by enemy saboteurs.

PIONEER RAILROADER WESTBROOK IS DEAD
(International News Service)
HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., June 5.—Harry Westbrook, 102 years old, one of the pioneer railroad men of western Pennsylvania, was dead today after a short illness. Westbrook, whose father, Levi, also lived until he was 102 years old, died yesterday at Hollidaysburg state hospital after a career in railroad construction work which spanned both North and South America. The railroad man was born at nearby Williamsburg and began work at the age of 16. He often recalled his experiences in South America, particularly one incident in which he was forced to kill two men who had attacked and wounded him.

STRIKE CONTINUES
(International News Service)
DETROIT, June 5.—For the third consecutive day, war production at the Packard Motor Car company remained at a standstill as strikers continued to ignore pleas of union and government officials to return to work. The strike, which began Thursday, is over employment and upgrading of three Negro workers on the final assembly line. The News, by Mail, One Year, $6.
